

Tokyo Real Estate Seminar at Shanghai, China

On October 28th in Shanghai, International Department of Mitsui Fudosan Realty held “Tokyo Real Estate Seminar” with several firms in China, inviting a high-net-worth-individual client of the well-known bank.

There has been 80 parties with 126 participants attended the seminar, and at the first part, we have introduced the services of the bank in China, the services of the real estate firm in China, and also explained the procedures to obtain Business Manager VISA in Japan.

Then, we have introduced 4 projects by 3 firms, and most of the participants showed great interest.

We will definitely keep following up on the participants in order to promote properties in Tokyo.

